The canopy bed always inspires romance; however, the clean lines of bed Ari exude its clearly contemporary core.

The structure in toulipier heartwood is embellished with the elegance and luminosity of the galuchat effect, available in the glossy and matt version in the colors Deserto and Laguna.

The feet and the details of the joints are black chrome.

The padded head-board is topped with a completely removable covers in fabric, ecopelle or leather. This bed has an adjustable slat mattress support, and is available only in the double-size version.
