ARMCHAIR
design Rodolfo Dordoni
2015

Elegance and harmony characterize this classy small armchair, allowing it to slide easily into classical and contemporary environments. The quality materials, the elegant details and the soft padded seat mean that it can accessorize any type of sofa yet can enjoy an independent existence or live as part of a pair. The steel tube structure comes in matt burnished finish. Details in glossy gold or glossy black nickel. The hide covers of the seat and the backrest cannot be removed, however, the covers of the seat and backrest cushions, in fabric or leather can be completely removed.
