A strong, decisive double-size bed with male traits. It is distant from cold minimalist lines as it has been softened by an important textile component. The softly padded headboard, covered like the base in removable fabric or leather covers, forms a delightful contrast with the elegant metal details visible in correspondence with the feet. The mattress support is available as an adjustable slatted version or with electrical movement mechanism. Luxury and comfort are the main features of a bed that has perfect proportions, with a further touch of elegance added by the skilfully tailored stitching on the headboard.
